Dear Parents

On Wednesday, we have been invited once again to take part in the Literary Festival being organised at Kestle Barton, near Manaccan.

This will be an all-day event giving the opportunity for the Year 4, 5 & 6 children in to work with a variety of authors and illustrators over the course of the day. It has always been a very enjoyable day in the past.

The first session starts at Kestle Barton at 10.00am and the children will travel by coach to Manaccan and then walk to Kestle Barton through the local woods. We are aiming to be back by normal school time but please bare with us if we are running 5 mins late.

Please also ensure that your child/children come to school in school uniform and with a waterproof coat, wellies and a rucksack with shoes that they can change into when we get there.

All children will need a packed lunch and a drink. A School packed lunch is available but we will need to order tomorrow morning so the kitchen can deliver them tomorrow as we will be leaving early on Weds.

Some of the authors will have their books for sale as part of the Festival so if any children would be interested in buying any of these some spending money would be advisable (between £5-£10 per child]. Further details are attached to this letter.

We are extremely grateful to the team at Kestle Barton for making this opportunity available to our children – and all at no charge!

Yours sincerely

Esther Bosustow
